PUBLIC COMMENT:

Kip Billups, 3001 Southwest 58th Avenue, #506, stated he only signed up for a spot for someone else. Amanda Brown, 810 Southwest 14th Avenue, spoke on homelessness. She asked that Christ Church Camp be allowed to continue. She stated the City should stress the importance of every life. Edith DiTommaso, 1613 Bowie, #B, stated she attended the meeting last Thursday. She stated she believed city laws and ordinances needed to be followed but she believed tent city was formed in good faith. She further requested a tiny home village be built. Rusty Tomlinson, 5700 Canyon Drive, stated an ordinance is being enforced to protect property values. He further stated there needed to be a balance between investors and the smallest person in Amarillo. He said Council has the power to ignore ordinances and a need to find a way to delay enforcement until the ordinance can be repealed. Amanda Hunter, 4849 Mesquite Springs Trail, spoke on the Christ Church Camp which she said provided food, clothing and shelter. She stated this was a community and a family for many the residents. She asked for assistance on a low barrier shelter. Susan Barros, 409 South Monroe Street, Director of Downtown Women's Center (DWC), noted a hand-up was better than a handout. She stated there were two kinds of homelessness, the unseen homeless and the residents living in tent city which is supporting the chronically homeless and enabling bad choices. She encouraged dependence and not independence. DWC had several workers at the tent city yesterday offering their services, none have come to the center. She further stated there was an inability to follow rules and get clean and sober. Mildred Darton, 2005 Northwest 14th Avenue, stated she was back in Amarillo after working a natural disaster only to come back to a local disaster. She stated she is a member of the North Heights Advisory Committee and she believed every homeless person that wants to be housed can be. She further stated living outdoors is a temporary housing, not necessarily safe, sanitary or stable. Bobby Nixon, Another Chance House, 209 South Jackson Street, spoke from a personal level. He stated 11 year ago he was homeless because of bad choices in his life. He stated he knew he had to improve his quality of life, had to investment in his own recovery. The needed assistance was provided by this community. He further stated he brought himself out of homelessness and that help can be provided by those who want to help themselves. Kit Rudd, 6850 Grande Street, stated he believed there was a lot of misinformation and misguideness. He stated there were problems in the camp, drug addiction, humane trafficking, and problems that cannot be dealt with. He stated there were drug free zones for anyone who needs rehab and ways to get people out of bad circumstances. He stated the community can find places for everyone in that camp and working together we can solve this issue. BF Roberts, 1007 North Hayden Street, expressed some concerns about the homeless. He stated it was a humane problem. He challenged the Council to reconsider their decisions and negotiate help for those less fortunate. Robert Goodrich, 4111 Stony Point, as the President of the Amarillo Lodging Association, inquired about the hotel occupancy revenue bonds. He asked for a delay on Item 2 until Council could speak with the owners of hotels/motels in the city that earn the HOT dollars. There were no further comments.

ITEM 1: Mayor Nelson presented the consent agenda and asked if any item should be removed for discussion or separate consideration. Motion was made by Councilmember Powell to approve Items 1B-E of the consent agenda, seconded by Councilmember Hays.

This item was taken out of order.

ITEM 4: Mayor Nelson presented the first reading of an ordinance for commercial ground vehicle operators at the Rick Husband Amarillo International Airport (Airport). The City of Amarillo and Department of Aviation propose this ordinance as authorized through the Texas Legislature, Texas Occupations Code Chapter 2402. The proposed ordinance authorizes reasonable fees and regulation on commercial ground vehicle operators, to include Transportation Network Companies (TNCs), e.g., Uber and Lyft. As proposed in the ordinance, the funding mechanism and regulatory operating standards are focused to accomplish the following objectives: establish uniform commercial ground vehicle operating standards, provide revenues to maintain airport systems that support commercial ground vehicle traffic on the airport, and to compensate the airport for administration and enforcement of the operating standards. The Airport’s Rules and Regulations document shall be the guiding standard for commercial ground vehicle operations at the Rick Husband Amarillo International Airport. This item was presented by Michael Conner, Airport Director. Mayor Nelson opened this item for public comment. Melba Roark, Airport Taxi Service, 4005 Northeast 26 Avenue, stated she is against the ordinance. She stated there were fewer flights coming in and therefore fewer passengers.
