

Professional Counseling & Biofeedback Center
#12 Medical Drive Amarillo, TX 79106
(806) 356-0404

THE PRACTICE

The Professional Counseling and Biofeedback Center was formed to provide innovative professional counseling, biofeedback and addiction treatment to persons in Amarillo and the surrounding area. It is the group's intention to offer the most comprehensive, high quality treatment available, for formulating the appropriate treatment modalities to meet each client's specific needs.

The Center provides treatment to children, adolescents, and adults, offering individuals, marital and family therapies. A variety of therapeutic and psychoeducational groups are available. Treatment modalities include: counseling, health promotion counseling, stress and pain management and professional medication services.

The Center is conveniently located in the Medical Arts Center at #12 Medical Drive, in a pleasantly aesthetic area of Amarillo.

THE COUNSELORS

Letta Day, MA, LPC, LCDC-MAC

Ms. Day has a Master of Arts Degree in Psychology, is a Licensed Professional Counselor, a Licensed Chemical Dependency Counselor, Master Addiction Counselor (SAP), a Certified EEG Biofeedback Therapist, and a Certified Mediator. She has practiced professionally since 1993 as a therapist, employee assistance provider and corporate trainer. Ms. Day has experience in working with employers and their employees regarding team building and stress management. She has advanced training in substance abuse evaluation (DOT) and treatment, adjustment disorders and marital therapy. Ms. Day welcomes clients ages 17 and older.

Jo Marie Wells-Brown, MA, LPC, LMFT

Ms. Brown has a Master of Arts Degree in Psychology, is a Licensed Professional Counselor, and a Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist. She has diversified experience in both medical school and psychiatric hospital settings and has practiced professionally since 1981. Her professional interests include abuse/trauma, female depression and women's issues, as well as therapy with families and the geriatric population.

Jerry King, MA, LPC

Mr. King has a Master of Arts Degree in Psychology and is a Licensed Professional Counselor. He has a special interest in individual therapy, marital and family issues therapy, grief issues, life skills, and Christian counseling. Mr. King has practiced in the Counseling field since 1998.

Nina Stein, M.Ed., LPC, LMFT

Ms. Stein has a Master of Education degree in Professional Counseling and is both a Licensed Professional Counselor and a Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist. She works with individuals, couples, and families (children from age 12) including treatment for depression, trauma, and anxiety. She has worked as a grief counselor and is a former Human Resource manager giving her an understanding of work related issues. She has experience with helping people with chronic pain and chronic illnesses. She has practiced as a psychotherapist since 1990. She also has a Master of Arts in Sociology and taught college full time for 4 years and part time for 6 years.

Dianna Price, MA, RN, LPC, CART

Ms. Price has a Master of Arts degree in Professional Counseling, is a Licensed Professional Counselor, Registered Nurse, and a Certified Anger Resolution Therapist. Her diversified experience includes work in an inpatient psychiatric hospital, inpatient substance abuse detox facility, intensive outpatient program for substance abuse and emergency room mental health counselor. Ms. Price's professional experience and interests include anger management, grief/loss, trauma, addiction, relationship difficulties, critical incident debriefing and ADHD. She has practiced in the Counseling field since 2002.

Linda Allen, MA, LPC

Ms. Allen has a Master of Arts degree in Professional Counseling and is a Licensed Professional Counselor. She has extensive counseling experience with children and adolescents. Ms. Allen's professional interests and advanced training include women's issues, fertility and reproductive counseling. She has practiced professionally since 2001.

Frank Reyes, MSSW, LCSW

Mr. Reyes has a Masters in Social Work degree and is licensed as a Clinical Social Worker. His postgraduate work includes mental health, substance abuse, children and family services. Mr. Reyes began practicing in the field in 1966. Services include individual, group, family and joint counseling.

Mirenda Rowley-Putney, PsyD

Dr. Rowley-Putney has a Doctorate of Psychology degree and is a Clinical Psychologist. She specializes in individual and family therapy, adolescents and adult.

Mark Rhodes, PsyD

Dr. Rhodes has a Doctorate of Psychology degree and is a Clinical Psychologist. He has experience in private practice, rehabilitation facilities, and hospitals. Dr. Rhodes has practiced professionally since 2000. His clinical experience includes psychological testing with youth, adult, and geriatric populations.