SENIOR DIVISION

The Coors Tournament of Champions instituted a Senior Division in 2012 for the winners of the Coors Light Senior Partnership and the Senior Men's champions of Amarillo Country Club and Tascosa Golf Club. The inaugural tournament was 36 holes on Saturday at Comanche Trail Arrowhead Course and Sunday at Ross Rogers WildHorse Course. The first tournament consisted of former Coors TOC qualifiers Brian Bim and Steve Rogers and newcomer Jerry Perales. Tom Doughtie was the ACC Senior champion, but he was also the ACC champion and thus qualified for the Coors TOC.

In 2013 the Senior Division was expanded to include the senior champion of the Miller Lite Invitational. Since ACC was closed due to reconstruction, they had no senior champion. The seniors played Comanche Trail Arrowhead Saturday and the newly-opened Ross Rogers Mustang Course Sunday.

In 2014 the Senior Division was expanded to include the 50-55, 56-60, 61-65, and 66-70 age groups of the Street Toyota Senior Charity Classic. Since Daniel Higgins won the 56-60 age group and was the 2013 Senior Division champion, he was the overall champion of the Senior Charity Classic and thus qualified for the 2014 TOC.

A total of 20 seniors have qualified for the Senior Division TOC, and 19 have played with two withdrawals during the tournament. Marc Gilmour is the only senior qualifier not to play (2015).

Six seniors have participated in both the regular TOC and the Senior Division TOC: Brian Bim, Tom Doughtie, Ralph Ellis, Daniel Higgins, Kyle Kelting, and Steve Rogers. Only Kelting has been champion in both events – 1998 & 2016 TOC and 2014 & 2015 Senior Division TOC.

The year 2019 is the eighth edition of the Senior Division, and the leaders in championships with two each are Kyle Kelting (2014/ 2015) and Daniel Higgins (2013/2018). Steve Rogers (2012), Mickey Wilson (2016), and Mike Montoya (2017) have each won one Senior Division Championship.

Kyle Kelting and Daniel Higgins hold the winning tournament record score at 137 (7 under par), as well as Tom Doughtie, who lost to Kelting in 2014 on the first playoff hole.
