PUBLIC COMMENT

Rusty Tomlinson, 5700 Canyon Drive, spoke about an article entitled, "Inside the Secret Border Patrol." He also spoke on the Public Safety Partnership the Amarillo Police Department has which requires them to comply with immigration requirements. Gary Prescott, 10101 Amarillo Boulevard West, inquired how his property was taken without his consent. Charles Martin, 7216 Bayswater Road, spoke on the proposed changes to the Spec Trans services. One of the changes proposed is to reduce the services to the ADA Federal minimum. He stated this service would take away many people's independence. He suggested no changes to the current Spec Trans services operation. Leslie Martin, 7216 Bayswater Road, stated the service means so much to her and her family and changes would affect many others. She stated she currently uses Spec Trans about 6-8 rides per week and Spec Trans has stated they add six new customers per week. She suggested obtaining cars or vans instead of using buses. Mr. Miller read a statement concerning Mr. Prescott property. There were no further comments.
