

Books to Broadway

Thursday, November 3 in the Amarillo Civic Center Heritage Room

Doors open at 6 and the show begins at 7

Books to Broadway is an annual concert celebrating music, books, and a love of reading. Produced by Dr. Robert Hansen, director of the WTAMU School of Music, Books to Broadway features songs from Broadway musicals based on books. A bookish silent auction takes place at the concert—which is free to attend—and sponsorships and premium tickets are available.

What songs will we hear?

The 2022 concert will be the tenth Books to Broadway event, so we've planned a retrospective of songs and shows featured throughout the concert's history. Expect to hear songs from a wide array of shows from Phantom of the Opera to Hamilton!

Is this a fundraiser?

Friends of the Amarillo Public Library accepts sponsorships and holds a silent auction at the event, but it is first and foremost a gift to the community and a reminder of the importance of reading.

Do I need to buy a ticket?

Theater-style seating is available at no charge and the concert includes a complimentary coffee and dessert bar. Premium seating tickets—which include 2 drink coupons—are available for $25.

Where can I purchase premium tickets?
